

Revocation of Obsolete Rules Regarding Infant Bouncer Seats and Stationary Activity Centers

Published September 17, 2026

District of Columbia statewide, DC - District of Columbia statewide County, DC

<https://noticenearby.com/notices/ingest-0a8aaabc4106a17a>

Revocation of Obsolete Rules Regarding Infant Bouncer Seats and Stationary Activity Centers

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (Commission or CPSC) is withdrawing a direct final rule that would remove two obsolete rules concerning infant bouncer seats and stationary activity centers that was published in the Federal Register on July 22, 2026, because the Commission received a significant adverse comment.

Agency: Consumer Product Safety Commission.

Document type: Rule.

Document number: 2026-19065.

Official Federal Register document. Matter furnished by the National Archives Federal Register API. Notice Nearby is not the publisher of record for this item.

Source:

<https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2026/09/17/2026-19065/revocation-of-obsolete-rules-regarding-infant-bouncer-seats-and-stationary-activity-centers>