

Aili Linnea Beaulieu

September 2, 1946 - August 25, 2026

Tacoma, Washington

Aili Linnea Beaulieu died in Tacoma on August 25, 2026. She was 79. Born in Tacoma on September 2, 1946, with Finnish-Franco roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She tested pulp until numbers told the truth. A sample bottle rack by the sink was her garden; quality was a habit, not a slogan. Colleagues still mention a sample bottle rack by the sink.

She married Toivo in 1970. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Toivo died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Tacoma, among streets she never needed to explain. The porch still expects a returning step.

Services

A memorial gathering in Tacoma with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
