

Albert David Fujiwara

July 23, 1938 - August 30, 2026

Grand Island, Nebraska

Albert David Fujiwara, 88, of Grand Island, died on August 30, 2026. He was born on July 23, 1938 in a Japanese-American family that measured love in finished chores. From the start, he treated promises like tools: keep them sharp, do not lend them lightly.

He moved grain and people without confusing the two. A flour scoop wiped clean nightly was honesty you could taste. Colleagues still mention a flour scoop wiped clean nightly.

In 1961 he married Sharon. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and three daughters walked to school in weather that did not care. When Sharon died in 2019, he kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember someone who knew every child's name on the block. He preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Grand Island was home enough that he never rehearsed an introduction. The calendar still has a circle on payday.

Services

Services in Grand Island will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
