

Alice Fay Zimdars

February 27, 1936 - February 25, 2026
Cumberland, Maryland

In Cumberland, on February 25, 2026, Alice Fay Zimdars died at 89. She was born on February 27, 1936 in a Pennsylvania-Dutch family that measured love in finished chores. She learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

She watched lehrs that decided whether glass would shame a season. A lehr watcher notebook yellowed but legible outlasted three managers. Colleagues still mention a lehr watcher notebook yellowed.

In 1959 she married Thomas. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and two daughters and a son walked to school in weather that did not care. When Thomas died in 2019, she kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember a porch light left on for anyone walking home late. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Cumberland, among streets she never needed to explain. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

Services

Services in Cumberland will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
