

Anthony Louis Petrucci

December 9, 1949 - August 15, 2026

New Haven, Connecticut

Anthony Louis Petrucci died in New Haven on August 15, 2026. He was 76. Born on December 9, 1949, with Italian-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He cut metal to tolerances that looked like faith. Blueprints lived on his bench under a sheet of plexiglass, and apprentices learned that a good fit is a kind of honesty. Colleagues still mention calipers that still held factory dust.

He married Angela in 1973. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Angela died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who swept the sidewalk past the property line when weather had been unfair. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in New Haven, among streets he never needed to explain. The recipe card is still stained in the useful places.

Services

A memorial gathering in New Haven with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
