

Armand Paul Thibodeau

May 9, 1941 - September 4, 2026

Lewiston, Maine

Armand Paul Thibodeau died in Lewiston on September 4, 2026. He was 85. Born on May 9, 1941, raised among Franco-American manners that never needed a speech. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He worked heat that could punish a careless minute. Earplugs hung on a nail by the door; he came home smelling of pulp and reliability. Colleagues still mention earplugs on a nail by the door.

He married Yvonne in 1964. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Yvonne died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Lewiston, among streets he never needed to explain. The porch still expects a returning step.

Services

A memorial gathering in Lewiston with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
