

Arthur George Abramov

September 4, 1948 - August 10, 2026

Roanoke, Virginia

Arthur George Abramov died in Roanoke on August 10, 2026. He was 77. Born in Roanoke on September 4, 1948, into a Russian-American household that treated work as a language. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He issued parts that kept crews from improvising danger. A parts bin labeled twice outlasted three managers. Colleagues still mention a parts bin labeled twice.

He married Nancy in 1970. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a daughter and two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Nancy died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who swept the sidewalk past the property line when weather had been unfair. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Roanoke, among streets he never needed to explain. The extra coffee is still in the thermos.

Services

A memorial gathering in Roanoke with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
