

Arthur James Blenheim

November 23, 1938 - September 1, 2026

Concord, New Hampshire

Arthur James Blenheim died in Concord on September 1, 2026. He was 87. Born on November 23, 1938, with Yankee New England roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He fixed frames that fed a city. A toolbox with drawers labeled twice was his map; downtime offended him like a personal slight. Colleagues still mention a toolbox with drawers labeled twice.

He married Helen in 1960. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Helen died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember covered dishes that arrived without a speech. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Concord, among streets he never needed to explain. The porch still expects a returning step.

Services

A memorial gathering in Concord with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
