

Arthur James Zolensky

November 23, 1937 - September 1, 2026

Manchester, New Hampshire

Arthur James Zolensky died in Manchester on September 1, 2026. He was 88. Born in Manchester on November 23, 1937, with Slovak-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He fixed frames that fed a city. A toolbox with drawers labeled twice was his map; downtime offended him like a personal slight. Colleagues still mention a toolbox with drawers labeled twice.

He married Helen in 1960. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Helen died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Manchester, among streets he never needed to explain. The extra coffee is still in the thermos.

Services

A memorial gathering in Manchester with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
