

Astrid Freya Bjornsson

June 27, 1941 - August 13, 2026

Frederick, Maryland

Astrid Freya Bjornsson died in Frederick on August 13, 2026. She was 85. Born in Frederick on June 27, 1941, raised among Icelandic-American manners that never needed a speech. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She made change for badges and briefcases with equal courtesy. A drawer balanced by feel meant the day was honest. Colleagues still mention a change drawer balanced by feel.

She married Bjorn in 1967. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Bjorn died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember covered dishes that arrived without a speech. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Frederick, among streets she never needed to explain. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

Services

A memorial gathering in Frederick with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
