

Betty Lou Helverson

January 20, 1932 - January 12, 2026

Tulsa, Oklahoma

Tulsa lost Betty Lou Helverson on January 12, 2026. She was 93. She was born on January 20, 1932 in a Cherokee-American family that measured love in finished chores. From the start, she treated promises like tools: keep them sharp, do not lend them lightly.

She issued parts that kept hangars from improvising danger. A parts crib bin label set rebuilt more trust than lawyers. Colleagues still mention a parts crib bin label set.

She married Ronald in 1954. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters and a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Ronald died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. Mornings were her favorite shift at home. She died in Tulsa, on streets that already knew her pace. The extra coffee is still in the thermos.

Services

A memorial gathering in Tulsa with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
