

Bridget Anne Donohue

November 19, 1948 - September 1, 2026

Fort Smith, Arkansas

Bridget Anne Donohue died in Fort Smith on September 1, 2026. She was 77. Born on November 19, 1948, with Irish-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She fielded parents, principals, and lost lunch money with the same calm. A drawer of hall passes held kindness; children learned her desk was safe. Colleagues still mention a drawer of hall passes and kindness.

She married Sean in 1970. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Sean died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember coffee offered before questions. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Fort Smith, among streets she never needed to explain. The garden will come up next spring without being told.

Services

A memorial gathering in Fort Smith with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
