

Carlos Eduardo Aguilar

November 22, 1947 - August 20, 2026

Topeka, Kansas

Carlos Eduardo Aguilar died in Topeka on August 20, 2026. He was 78. Born in Topeka on November 22, 1947, with Mexican-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He watched bin temperatures and weather reports with equal seriousness. A thermos that never emptied outlasted three jackets. Colleagues still mention a thermos of coffee that never emptied.

He married Rosa in 1973. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Rosa died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Topeka, among streets he never needed to explain. The key is still under the same brick.

Services

A memorial gathering in Topeka with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
