

Carlos Miguel Villanueva

February 27, 1943 - August 22, 2026

Modesto, California

Carlos Miguel Villanueva died in Modesto on August 22, 2026. He was 83. Born on February 27, 1943, raised among Mexican-American manners that never needed a speech. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He rubbed stain into wood until color became character. A can labeled by hand sat on his bench; he could match a customer's memory of a table. Colleagues still mention a can of stain labeled by hand.

He married Rosa in 1965. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Rosa died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Modesto, among streets he never needed to explain. The recipe card is still stained in the useful places.

Services

A memorial gathering in Modesto with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
