

Chester Dean Vuillermoz

July 27, 1934 - September 17, 2026

Casper, Wyoming

Chester Dean Vuillermoz died in Casper on September 17, 2026. He was 92. Born in Casper on July 27, 1934; Swiss-American cooking and payday thrift set the tone of the house. Young, he understood that quiet competence outlasts loud plans.

He heard a bad order the way a musician hears a wrong note. A parts runner tote tag meant the next hand could trust the last. Colleagues still mention a parts runner tote tag.

In 1960 he married Evelyn. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and a son and a daughter walked to school in weather that did not care. When Evelyn died in 2019, he kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember coffee offered before questions. He preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Casper was home enough that he never rehearsed an introduction. The porch still expects a returning step.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. His life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

Services in Casper will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
