

Chioma Grace Okafor

March 9, 1950 - September 7, 2026

Idaho Falls, Idaho

Chioma Grace Okafor died in Idaho Falls on September 7, 2026. She was 76. Born in Idaho Falls on March 9, 1950, into a Nigerian-American household that treated work as a language. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She balanced books in green ink that did not forgive fiction. Farmers trusted her totals; she trusted coffee and early mornings. Colleagues still mention a ledger with green ink totals.

She married Emeka in 1976. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Emeka died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Idaho Falls, among streets she never needed to explain. The recipe card is still stained in the useful places.

Services

A memorial gathering in Idaho Falls with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
