

Clarence Michael Thibodaux

July 11, 1938 - August 15, 2026

Tucson, Arizona

Tucson lost Clarence Michael Thibodaux on August 15, 2026. He was 88. Born in Tucson on July 11, 1938; Cajun cooking and payday thrift set the tone of the house. He learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

He handled lines where the water never kept the same shape twice. A ferry rope splice fid rode in his pocket like a spare prayer. Colleagues still mention a ferry rope splice fid.

In 1964 he married Patricia. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and a son and a daughter walked to school in weather that did not care. When Patricia died in 2019, he kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember a jumper cable offered before the tow truck was dialed. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Tucson, among streets he never needed to explain. The porch still expects a returning step.

Services

Services in Tucson will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
