

Claude Neil Martinique

January 12, 1930 - September 6, 2024

Muskogee, Oklahoma

Claude Neil Martinique of Muskogee died on September 6, 2024 at the age of 94. Born on January 12, 1930, with Norwegian-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

He worked decks that argued with weather and schedules. A dredge deck line splice kit preferred work over speeches. Colleagues still mention a dredge deck line splice kit.

He married Norma in 1952. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised four children through public schools and ordinary weather. After Norma died in 2017, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Muskogee, among streets he never needed to explain. The Sunday call still has a time slot in the house.

Services

A memorial gathering in Muskogee with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
