

Constance Mae Hollowell

March 22, 1938 - August 4, 2026

Providence, Rhode Island

Constance Mae Hollowell died in Providence on August 4, 2026. She was 88. Born on March 22, 1938, raised among Yankee New England manners that never needed a speech. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She brought shine to metal until it looked inevitable. A buffing wheel tuned by ear was her signature; piecework never made her careless. Colleagues still mention a buffing wheel she could tune by ear.

She married Arthur in 1963. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Arthur died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a wave from the driveway that meant you were seen. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Providence, among streets she never needed to explain. The chair by the window still holds the shape of a habit.

Services

A memorial gathering in Providence with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
