

Dmitri Ivan Pavlov

June 21, 1948 - September 1, 2026

Sacramento, California

Dmitri Ivan Pavlov died in Sacramento on September 1, 2026. He was 78. Born in Sacramento on June 21, 1948, with Russian-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He walked basements and rooftops of buildings that never slept. A boiler logbook with green ink totals outlasted three governors. Colleagues still mention a boiler logbook with green ink totals.

He married Natalia in 1975. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Natalia died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a wave from the driveway that meant you were seen. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Sacramento, among streets he never needed to explain. The key is still under the same brick.

Services

A memorial gathering in Sacramento with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
