

Doris Faye Escudero

October 2, 1947 - August 27, 2026

Boise, Idaho

Friends in Boise remember Doris Faye Escudero, who died on August 27, 2026 at 78. Born in Boise on October 2, 1947; Spanish-American cooking and payday thrift set the tone of the house. Young, she understood that quiet competence outlasts loud plans.

She pulled frames until gauges agreed and pride could return. A frame clamp labeled by size taught apprentices that shortcuts show. Colleagues still mention a frame clamp labeled by size.

She and Larry married in 1974 and raised three sons without needing an audience. After Larry's death in 2019, she held to quiet habits-coffee before dawn, a tended yard, a voice on the phone that still checked in.

Neighbors remember snow shoveled past the corner that was not required. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Boise, among streets she never needed to explain. The calendar still has a circle on payday.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. Her life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A quiet remembrance in Boise. Those who wish may give to a neighborhood library, food pantry, or workers' aid fund instead of flowers.
