

Doris Faye Pembrey

April 17, 1953 - September 2, 2026

Chattanooga, Tennessee

Friends in Chattanooga remember Doris Faye Pembrey, who died on September 2, 2026 at 73. Born on April 17, 1953 and raised among Welsh-American manners that never needed a speech. From the start, she treated promises like tools: keep them sharp, do not lend them lightly.

She watched gauges that kept towns from inventing thirst. A water-plant logbook with careful ink was gospel in small print. Colleagues still mention a water-plant logbook with careful ink.

She married Larry in 1978. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised three sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Larry died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a wave from the driveway that meant you were seen. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Chattanooga, among streets she never needed to explain. The Sunday call still has a time slot in the house.

Services

A memorial gathering in Chattanooga with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
