

Doris Lynn Hornbeck

April 26, 1933 - November 28, 2025

Grand Junction, Colorado

Grand Junction lost Doris Lynn Hornbeck on November 28, 2025. She was 92. Born on April 26, 1933 and raised among Scottish-American manners that never needed a speech. Young, she understood that quiet competence outlasts loud plans.

She sorted routes that had to look rested before the trucks left. A mail sack clamp marked with initials opened more than bags; it opened payday. Colleagues still mention a mail sack clamp marked with initials.

In 1959 she married Thomas. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and four children walked to school in weather that did not care. When Thomas died in 2018, she kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember a jumper cable offered before the tow truck was dialed. Mornings were her favorite shift at home. She died in Grand Junction, on streets that already knew her pace. The lunch pail still waits by the back door.

Services

Services in Grand Junction will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
