

Doris Lynn Theriot

October 8, 1929 - June 22, 2025

Youngstown, Ohio

Doris Lynn Theriot of Youngstown died on June 22, 2025 at the age of 95. She was born on October 8, 1929 in a Welsh-American family that measured love in finished chores. She grew up believing that showing up was the first craft.

She blended seed until charts agreed and pride could return. A seed blender paddle chalked decided what left for markets downstate. Colleagues still mention a seed blender paddle chalked.

She and Thomas married in 1953 and raised two daughters and a son without needing an audience. After Thomas's death in 2018, she held to quiet habits-coffee before dawn, a tended yard, a voice on the phone that still checked in.

Neighbors remember covered dishes that arrived without a speech. Mornings were her favorite shift at home. She died in Youngstown, on streets that already knew her pace. The lunch pail still waits by the back door.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. Her life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A quiet remembrance in Youngstown. Those who wish may give to a neighborhood library, food pantry, or workers' aid fund instead of flowers.
