

Edwin Paul Radcliffe

January 21, 1944 - September 5, 2026

Bangor, Maine

Edwin Paul Radcliffe died in Bangor on September 5, 2026. He was 82. Born on January 21, 1944, with Yankee Maine roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He ran a line that never forgave a slow morning. A hairnet washed every night was pride; piece rates never erased dignity. Colleagues still mention a hairnet washed every night as pride.

He married Martha in 1969. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Martha died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Bangor, among streets he never needed to explain. The porch still expects a returning step.

Services

A memorial gathering in Bangor with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
