

Elena Sofia Kostopoulos

July 15, 1943 - August 12, 2026

Henderson, Nevada

Elena Sofia Kostopoulos died in Henderson on August 12, 2026. She was 83. Born in Henderson on July 15, 1943, with Greek-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She ran carts through nights that never ended. A red lanyard key meant trust; she taught that clean rooms are a kind of respect. Colleagues still mention a cart key on a red lanyard.

She married Nikos in 1966. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Nikos died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Henderson, among streets she never needed to explain. The key is still under the same brick.

Services

A memorial gathering in Henderson with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
