

Elsie Sue Beachy

February 23, 1948 - June 3, 2026
Gainesville, Florida

Elsie Sue Beachy died in Gainesville on June 3, 2026. She was 78. She was born on February 23, 1948 in a Puerto Rican family that measured love in finished chores. Early on, she decided that a paycheck and a handshake should weigh the same.

She folded mornings into stacks that left before travelers woke fully. A flatwork folder chalk stub taught that small mercies matter. Colleagues still mention a flatwork folder chalk stub.

She and Ernest married in 1972 and raised two sons and a daughter without needing an audience. After Ernest's death in 2019, she held to quiet habits-coffee before dawn, a tended yard, a voice on the phone that still checked in.

Neighbors remember a shovel borrowed and returned sharper. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Gainesville, among streets she never needed to explain. The Sunday call still has a time slot in the house.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. Her life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A quiet remembrance in Gainesville. Those who wish may give to a neighborhood library, food pantry, or workers' aid fund instead of flowers.
