

Elsie Sue Beidler

August 2, 1942 - August 21, 2026

Duluth, Minnesota

Family and neighbors in Duluth mark the death of Elsie Sue Beidler on August 21, 2026. She was 84. Born August 2, 1942 in Duluth, carrying Puerto Rican stories that arrived without footnotes. Early on, she decided that a paycheck and a handshake should weigh the same.

She filled trays that had to become product before weather changed its mind. A mushroom tray chalk stub decided what left for markets. Colleagues still mention a mushroom tray chalk stub.

She married Earl in 1967. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two sons and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Earl died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember the radio low on a Saturday while repairs got done. Mornings were her favorite shift at home. She died in Duluth, on streets that already knew her pace. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

Services

A memorial gathering in Duluth with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
