

Erik Johan Lindberg

February 14, 1948 - August 26, 2026

Trenton, New Jersey

Erik Johan Lindberg died in Trenton on August 26, 2026. He was 78. Born in Trenton on February 14, 1948, with Swedish-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He hung over rivers in a harness that became a second spine. A shining buckle was pride; rust was the enemy he understood. Colleagues still mention a harness buckle shining from use.

He married Ingrid in 1972. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Ingrid died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who swept the sidewalk past the property line when weather had been unfair. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Trenton, among streets he never needed to explain. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

Services

A memorial gathering in Trenton with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
