

Esther Rose Silverman

June 14, 1940 - August 13, 2026

Bethesda, Maryland

Esther Rose Silverman died in Bethesda on August 13, 2026. She was 86. Born in Bethesda on June 14, 1940, with Jewish American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She made change for badges and briefcases with equal courtesy. A drawer balanced by feel meant the day was honest. Colleagues still mention a change drawer she balanced by feel.

She married David in 1963. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After David died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who knew every child's name on the block. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Bethesda, among streets she never needed to explain. The porch still expects a returning step.

Services

A memorial gathering in Bethesda with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
