

Eugene Ray Crabill

December 3, 1934 - March 2, 2025

Phoenix, Arizona

Family and neighbors in Phoenix mark the death of Eugene Ray Crabill on March 2, 2025. He was 90. Born in Phoenix on December 3, 1934; Italian-American cooking and payday thrift set the tone of the house. From the start, he treated promises like tools: keep them sharp, do not lend them lightly.

He split shakes that would hold other people's roofs. A cedar shake splitting free oiled nightly kept hurry honest. Colleagues still mention a cedar shake splitting free oiled nightly.

He married Margaret in 1959. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Margaret died in 2018, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember the radio low on a Saturday while repairs got done. Mornings were his favorite shift at home. He died in Phoenix, on streets that already knew his pace. The Sunday call still has a time slot in the house.

Services

A memorial gathering in Phoenix with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
