

Floyd Allen Zimbelman

March 6, 1931 - January 19, 2026

Modesto, California

Modesto lost Floyd Allen Zimbelman on January 19, 2026. He was 94. Born on March 6, 1931, with German-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. From the start, he treated promises like tools: keep them sharp, do not lend them lightly.

He stacked trays that had to look inevitable on trucks. A packing tray chalk stub decided what the shed could sell. Colleagues still mention a packing tray chalk stub.

He married Mildred in 1953. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised three sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Mildred died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. He preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Modesto was home enough that he never rehearsed an introduction. The radio is still tuned to the station that played while work got done.

Services

A memorial gathering in Modesto with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
