

Frances June Tadesse

July 10, 1947 - August 3, 2026

Warwick, Rhode Island

In Warwick, on August 3, 2026, Frances June Tadesse died at 79. Born on July 10, 1947, with Ethiopian-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She balanced milk tickets in ink that did not invent gallons. A creamery route book smelled faintly of cold rooms. Colleagues still mention a creamery route book.

In 1970 she married George. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and three children walked to school in weather that did not care. When George died in 2019, she kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember the radio low on a Saturday while repairs got done. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Warwick, among streets she never needed to explain. The chair by the window still holds the shape of a habit.

Services

Services in Warwick will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
