

Francis Charles Pfeffer

September 22, 1956 - August 12, 2026

Lubbock, Texas

Francis Charles Pfeffer died in Lubbock on August 12, 2026. He was 69. He was born on September 22, 1956 in a German-American family that measured love in finished chores. Young, he understood that quiet competence outlasts loud plans.

He pressed jackets for weddings and funerals with the same care. A press cloth folded by habit never left the board. Colleagues still mention a press cloth folded by habit.

He married Diane in 1978. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Diane died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. Mornings were his favorite shift at home. He died in Lubbock, on streets that already knew his pace. The Sunday call still has a time slot in the house.

Services

A memorial gathering in Lubbock with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
