

Frank Gene Lightcap

November 20, 1951 - July 21, 2026

Evansville, Indiana

In Evansville, on July 21, 2026, Frank Gene Lightcap died at 74. Born in Evansville on November 20, 1951, into a Filipino-American household that treated work as a language. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He took samples that kept tipples from guessing. A tipple sample scoop labeled twice meant the day belonged to accuracy. Colleagues still mention a tipple sample scoop labeled twice.

In 1974 he married Phyllis. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and three daughters walked to school in weather that did not care. When Phyllis died in 2019, he kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember a porch light left on for anyone walking home late. He preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Evansville was home enough that he never rehearsed an introduction. The lunch pail still waits by the back door.

Services

Services in Evansville will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
