

Frieda Mae Eberhardt

August 28, 1951 - August 21, 2026

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Frieda Mae Eberhardt died in Philadelphia on August 21, 2026. She was 74. Born in Philadelphia on August 28, 1951, with German-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She fielded parents, principals, and lost lunch money with the same calm. A drawer of hall passes held kindness; children learned her desk was safe. Colleagues still mention a drawer of hall passes and kindness.

She married Karl in 1978. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Karl died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who knew every child's name on the block. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Philadelphia, among streets she never needed to explain. The radio is still tuned to the station that played while work got done.

Services

A memorial gathering in Philadelphia with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
