

Frieda Mae Nestlebush

August 28, 1950 - August 21, 2026

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Frieda Mae Nestlebush died in Pittsburgh on August 21, 2026. She was 75. Born in Pittsburgh on August 28, 1950, raised among German-American manners that never needed a speech. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She fielded parents, principals, and lost lunch money with the same calm. A drawer of hall passes held kindness; children learned her desk was safe. Colleagues still mention a drawer of hall passes and kindness.

She married Karl in 1976. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Karl died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember coffee offered before questions. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Pittsburgh, among streets she never needed to explain. The extra coffee is still in the thermos.

Services

A memorial gathering in Pittsburgh with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
