

Gloria Rae Gomes

July 10, 1946 - August 9, 2026

Allentown, Pennsylvania

In Allentown, on August 9, 2026, Gloria Rae Gomes died at 80. She was born on July 10, 1946 in a Cape Verdean-American family that measured love in finished chores. Early on, she decided that a paycheck and a handshake should weigh the same.

She moved cattle and crews without confusing either for the other. A feedlot tally book stayed clean enough to trust. Colleagues still mention a feedlot tally book.

In 1969 she married Paul. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and twin sons walked to school in weather that did not care. When Paul died in 2019, she kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember a wave from the driveway that meant you were seen. She preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Allentown was home enough that she never rehearsed an introduction. The extra coffee is still in the thermos.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. Her life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

Services in Allentown will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
