

Gloria Rose Breaux

April 18, 1931 - August 16, 2026
Medford, Oregon

Family and neighbors in Medford mark the death of Gloria Rose Breaux on August 16, 2026. She was 95. Born April 18, 1931 in Medford, carrying Navajo stories that arrived without footnotes. She grew up believing that showing up was the first craft.

She built trellises that held other people's years. A trellis staple hammer with tape preferred work over speeches. Colleagues still mention a trellis staple hammer with tape.

She married George in 1956. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised four children through public schools and ordinary weather. After George died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember the radio low on a Saturday while repairs got done. Mornings were her favorite shift at home. She died in Medford, on streets that already knew her pace. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

Services

A memorial gathering in Medford with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
