

Grace Ellen Armitage

January 30, 1945 - August 16, 2026

San Diego, California

Grace Ellen Armitage died in San Diego on August 16, 2026. She was 81. Born in San Diego on January 30, 1945, into a Anglo West household that treated work as a language. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She treated injections and bedside manners as the same craft. Patients kept the calm she modeled; students kept her laminated card. Colleagues still mention a laminated dosage card in her purse.

She married Robert in 1968. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Robert died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who knew every child's name on the block. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in San Diego, among streets she never needed to explain. The garden will come up next spring without being told.

Services

A memorial gathering in San Diego with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
