

Halina Maria Brzezinski

September 22, 1945 - August 17, 2026

Anchorage, Alaska

Halina Maria Brzezinski died in Anchorage on August 17, 2026. She was 80. Born on September 22, 1945, into a Polish-American household that treated work as a language. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She worked nights when the halls were longest, plating trays that had to be hot and kind at once. She learned every allergy card by heart. Colleagues still mention a hairnet she washed every night.

She married Stanislaw in 1967. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Stanislaw died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember coffee offered before questions. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Anchorage, among streets she never needed to explain. The recipe card is still stained in the useful places.

Services

A memorial gathering in Anchorage with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
