

Hans Otto Lundgren

April 7, 1946 - August 20, 2026

Omaha, Nebraska

Hans Otto Lundgren died in Omaha on August 20, 2026. He was 80. Born on April 7, 1946, into a Swedish-American household that treated work as a language. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He kept a line moving without treating people as parts. A stopwatch lived in his pocket unused; fairness was the real tempo. Colleagues still mention a stopwatch he never needed to wind.

He married Greta in 1968. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Greta died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who swept the sidewalk past the property line when weather had been unfair. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Omaha, among streets he never needed to explain. The recipe card is still stained in the useful places.

Services

A memorial gathering in Omaha with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
