

Harold James Krawiec

January 1, 1930 - July 5, 2026

Birmingham, Alabama

Family and neighbors in Birmingham mark the death of Harold James Krawiec on July 5, 2026. He was 96. Born on January 1, 1930 and raised among Polish-American manners that never needed a speech. He learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

He ran pilot boats through fog that ignored schedules. A harbor whistle key worn bright opened more than a locker; it opened payday. Colleagues still mention a harbor whistle key worn bright.

He married Helen in 1955. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Helen died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember the radio low on a Saturday while repairs got done. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Birmingham, among streets he never needed to explain. The work gloves still keep the shape of a grip.

Services

A memorial gathering in Birmingham with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
