

Harpreet Singh Kaur

October 11, 1939 - August 10, 2026

Duluth, Minnesota

Harpreet Singh Kaur died in Duluth on August 10, 2026. He was 86. Born on October 11, 1939, with Punjabi-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He counted ore tickets in wind that came off the lake like a verdict. A wool scarf outlasted winters; dockworkers tipped their caps. Colleagues still mention a wool scarf that outlasted winters.

He married Simran in 1961. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Simran died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember coffee offered before questions. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Duluth, among streets he never needed to explain. The porch still expects a returning step.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. His life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A memorial gathering in Duluth with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
