

Helen Louise Vandeventer

November 29, 1930 - March 8, 2026

Jonesboro, Arkansas

Friends in Jonesboro remember Helen Louise Vandeventer, who died on March 8, 2026 at 95. Born on November 29, 1930 and raised among Dutch-American manners that never needed a speech. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She kept sheets that turned presses into wages without inventing weights. A press ticket spindle wiped dry ended arguments more gently than speeches. Colleagues still mention a press ticket spindle wiped dry.

She married Robert in 1955. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters and a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Robert died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a wave from the driveway that meant you were seen. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Jonesboro, among streets she never needed to explain. The recipe card is still stained in the useful places.

Services

A memorial gathering in Jonesboro with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
