

Helen Mae Farabee

June 10, 1933 - February 9, 2025

Anchorage, Alaska

Helen Mae Farabee, 91, of Anchorage, died on February 9, 2025. Born on June 10, 1933, with Irish-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

She sorted tins until grades agreed and pride could return. A tinplate sorter chalk stub wiped clean preferred work over speeches. Colleagues still mention a tinplate sorter chalk stub wiped clean.

In 1956 she married Clarence. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and three sons walked to school in weather that did not care. When Clarence died in 2018, she kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember someone who knew every child's name on the block. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Anchorage, among streets she never needed to explain. The radio is still tuned to the station that played while work got done.

Services

Services in Anchorage will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
