

Henry James Bouchard

August 7, 1943 - August 22, 2026

Cheyenne, Wyoming

Henry James Bouchard died in Cheyenne on August 22, 2026. He was 83. Born in Cheyenne on August 7, 1943, into a Franco-American household that treated work as a language. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He moved freight on paper before it moved on steel. A timetable pencil stub outlasted computers; he filed delays without blaming the weather out loud. Colleagues still mention a timetable pencil stub.

He married Dorothy in 1967. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Dorothy died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who swept the sidewalk past the property line when weather had been unfair. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Cheyenne, among streets he never needed to explain. The extra coffee is still in the thermos.

Services

A memorial gathering in Cheyenne with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
