

Herman Wade Weaverling

November 26, 1945 - July 12, 2026

Reading, Pennsylvania

Herman Wade Weaverling died in Reading on July 12, 2026. He was 80. Born in Reading on November 26, 1945, into a Dutch-American household that treated work as a language. He learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

He pressed pellets that farms would trust without knowing his name. A pellet press sample scoop labeled kept shifts fair. Colleagues still mention a pellet press sample scoop.

He and Marjorie married in 1969 and raised two daughters and a son without needing an audience. After Marjorie's death in 2019, he held to quiet habits-coffee before dawn, a tended yard, a voice on the phone that still checked in.

Neighbors remember a shovel borrowed and returned sharper. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Reading, among streets he never needed to explain. The calendar still has a circle on payday.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. His life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A quiet remembrance in Reading. Those who wish may give to a neighborhood library, food pantry, or workers' aid fund instead of flowers.
