

Howard Earl Eisenbart

May 14, 1935 - April 19, 2026

Manchester, New Hampshire

Family and neighbors in Manchester mark the death of Howard Earl Eisenbart on April 19, 2026. He was 90. Born on May 14, 1935, with English-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. Young, he understood that quiet competence outlasts loud plans.

He heard a bad loom the way a musician hears a wrong note. A loom fixer reed hook preferred work over speeches. Colleagues still mention a loom fixer reed hook.

In 1958 he married Janet. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and three sons walked to school in weather that did not care. When Janet died in 2019, he kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember a porch light left on for anyone walking home late. He preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Manchester was home enough that he never rehearsed an introduction. The work gloves still keep the shape of a grip.

Services

Services in Manchester will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
