

Ingrid Solveig Bergstrom

September 29, 1947 - September 8, 2026

Fargo, North Dakota

Ingrid Solveig Bergstrom died in Fargo on September 8, 2026. She was 78. Born on September 29, 1947, with Norwegian-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She balanced books in green ink that did not forgive fiction. Farmers trusted her totals; she trusted coffee and early mornings. Colleagues still mention a ledger with green ink totals.

She married Lars in 1974. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Lars died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Fargo, among streets she never needed to explain. The extra coffee is still in the thermos.

Services

A memorial gathering in Fargo with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
